Look Up

March 31, 2024

Easter Sunday:

look UP

When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. — Mark 16:4

GATHERING UP

To prepare for Easter the scriptures have been asking us to consider all that Jesus is “up to” and all that he asks us to be up to in his name. Today we celebrate all the small things that we can do right now to respond to God’s call in this place and time. What are you up to?

Welcome

We Acknowledge What’s Up

You Raise Me Up

Leader: When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you." (Mark 16: 1-7)

ALL: When I am down and, oh my soul, so weary When troubles come and my heart burdened be Then, I am still and wait here in the silence
Until You come and sit awhile with me

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains
You raise me up, to walk on stormy seas
I am strong, when I am on Your shoulders
You raise me up to more than I can be

Leader: Let us pray together:
Ever-Living God, we come with our heads bent down sometimes, overwhelmed with Good Friday news.
Raise us up, lift up our eyes, so that we might look up and see the tenacity of life in the midst of death.

Leader: Hear assurance in what the Psalmist proclaims:

O give thanks to the LORD, for God is good; God's steadfast love endures forever! Let Israel say, "God's steadfast love endures forever." The LORD is my strength and my might; God has become my salvation. There are glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous: "The right hand of the LORD does valiantly; the right hand of the LORD is exalted; the right hand of the LORD does valiantly. I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD." (Psalm 118, excerpts)

In the name of Christ, you are forgiven.
ALL: In the name of Christ, you are forgiven.
Glory to God, Amen!

Please stand in body or spirit.

ALL: You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains
You raise me up, to walk on stormy seas
I am strong, when I am on Your shoulders
You raise me up to more than I can be

The Peace

As a people forgiven and freed, we reach out to lift others up, offering the peace of Christ.
Peace be with you!
And also with you!

You are invited to share the Peace with those around you [remembering to send your peace through the camera to those worshiping remotely].

Leader: Please remain standing, friends! Welcome to you all!
Whether you are visiting, come here often or rarely, we have all gathered to receive good news. That is what we boldly proclaim today: in the midst of all that brings us down, we can look up in this moment and know that we are not alone and that life and love wins.

Three days had passed. The women went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body, according to custom. No doubt the journey to the tomb was heavy. Perhaps they approached with heads lowered in defeat and grief. But then they looked up and it changed their lives. The barrier that they thought would be there was gone and what they discovered instead was life. Will we look up? Will we look up from our complacency, apathy, fear and depression about "the way things are" and be filled with the promise of new life and hope yet again? Will we be part of the raising up of humanity? We can say yes to this, for Christ the Lord is Risen Today!

FILLING UP

The Word Uplifts

Scripture

Acts 10: 34-43

Then Peter began to speak to them: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all.

That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

BUILDING UP

Up to Something Good

Prayers of the People

Leader: Over the course of the six weeks of Lent, we sang Psalm 114 as a way of centering our hearts for prayer. The use of incense has traditionally been used by many religions as a way of seeing the intentions of our hearts lifted to a higher realm. Ancient and modern Christians continue this tradition. If you like incense, we invite you to get some for your home as a way of being reminded every time you light it that you are being lifted up, that you can uplift others, that you can be up to something good.

Let my prayer rise up
like incense before you,
the lifting up of my hands
as an offering to you.

Leader: We call upon you, O God, in the midst of the fullness of life — the joy and the sorrow. We pray that we can be “up to something good” for our selves, our neighborhoods, and our world. We call upon you, O God, to give us the strength and courage to be up to something good for the sake of The Good. In this moment — in our mind’s eye — we imagine and offer our commitment to one small thing this week that will lift someone up, elevate and affirm the good when we see it, and bring a bit more calm or joy where we are. And if we find we are not up to it, we pray we can accept the goodness of others and feel your encouraging love.

like incense before you,
the lifting up of my hands
as an offering to you.

We pray this in the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray...

The Lord's Prayer

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Let my prayer rise up
like incense before you,
the lifting up of my hands
as an offering to you.

What R U Up 2 for My Sake?

[sung to the tune LASST UNS ERFREUEN]

What are you up to for my sake?

What are you up to "for the Good?"

Would you come now, follow, join up?

Let us take up, wake up anew,

Let us build up, fill up with you!

Let us lift up the gifts we raise up.

For the sake of,

for the shape of,

heaven on earth.

Offertory Prayer

Spirit of Resurrection, we ask you to raise up these gifts in ways that we could not imagine.

Lift up our heads and our hearts as Easter people who refuse to believe that there is something we can be up to for the Good of this world.

So be it! Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

Everyone is welcome to this meal of love and grace. You will be served in your seats. Please wait to eat and drink until the Pastor invites you to do so.

If you are at home, we invite you to find something to eat and drink that represents communion for you.

A non-gluten option with juice is available in a prepackaged container on the bread tray. Both red wine and white grape juice are on the tray of cups. Please choose either.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and holy thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Creator of all things.

You formed us in your image and filled us up with your breath of life.
When we turned away, deflated and down,

your love remained steadfast.
You delivered us from captivity, ignited us again with the warmth of your love,
made covenant to be our sovereign God,
and spoke to us through your prophets.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, God of the heaven - ly host; Heav - en and earth are full, are full of the majesty of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est! Blessed the one who comes in the name of our God, Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est!

Leader: On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread,
gave it to his disciples, and said:

“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:

“Drink from this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Leader: God of love,
pour out your love and spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the love of Christ,
so that we may be for the world the love of Christ!

By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
one with each other,
and one in ministry with all the world,

BREAKING BREAD AND POURING WINE

L: The bread which we break is the communion of the body of Christ.

L: The cup of blessing which we bless is the communion of the blood of Christ.

HYMN In the Bulb There Is a Flower
#433 Black Hymnal/New Century Hymnal

In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity,
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

L: Take and drink, this is the cup of the new covenant, poured out for you.

The Blessing

L: May the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, keep and preserve you unto eternal life.

Blessing for the Journey

And so now go into the world, remembering that whenever you feel down,
you can look up.

Look up and notice the life can't help itself...
it continues renewal all around you.

In spite of what you are feeling at any one time in your life, know that you are loved, that your life matters, that your life can be uplifted and you can uplift those around you.
You have all you need to be up to something.

When someone asks you, "What are you up to?"
you can respond,

"With God's help, I'm up to something good!"

Let the people say, Amen!
Amen!
